Water : The Source of life

Water is essential for all living beings. Without water life can not exist on the earth. We need water for so many purposes like drinking, cooking, bathing, cleaning, watering plants etc. Plants and animals all need water to survive.

It is very important to save water and use it wisely as there are many places in the world which are facing the shortage of water. We can prevent the wastage of water just by following simple steps like - turning the tap when not in use, avoid wasting the water and fixing leakages etc.

It is very important to conserve the precious natural resource to ensure a better future for everyone.

Friends Are Important

Friends are very important in our lives. They bring happiness, support and help us in different times. Our true friend is the one who is always ready to help us whenever we are in need. Also there is a saying, "A friend in need is a friend indeed". A true friend always stands by our side and always helps us to their best. They also teach us the value of kindness, sharing and team work. Without friends the life will be dull and lonely. That is why we should always cherish our friendship and be there for our friends as they are for us.

CHAPTER-27 "Story Writing"

Once upon a time there was a man lived in a village. He had a dog named Jojo. They both spend a wonderful time with each other. Jojo didn't have food until the man came to the home from work. There was a very good bonding between the man and Jojo.

One night the man was sleeping and Jojo was also sleeping near the bed of man. A thief entered into the house of the man. The man couldn't know about the thief. But at the same time the Jojo got up and started barking loudly on the thief. The thief got scared and he ran away from there.

The man woke up and find out the scene that happened at his home. He was grateful to his dog Jojo. He rewarded the dog for loyalty. This story proves that the dog is the most loyal pet animal.

2. One upon a time, there was a poor water carrier named Shyam. Daily, he used to go to the river and filled his two pots with water. But one pot was perfect and the other pot was having many cracks in it. From those cracks, water got leaked and as the man reached home, the pot was half empty.

The pot felt so bad for this. One day, it apologised for being cracked and said that just because of it he got only half of the water. The carrier smiled and said "Don't worry my dear pot', because one pot of water is more than enough for me but just because of you so many flowers have grown on the path. After listening to this, the cracked pot became so happy and it was very grateful to the man for not throwing it.

The moral of the story is every one has something good or bad in oneself. But it depend upon us which side we want to see, whether good or bad.
