3. Myself (Daily Routine)

I am an early riser. I get up at 5 a.m. every day. I wash my mouth and go for a morning walk. I return at 6:30 a.m. and brush my teeth. After that, I take tea and light biscuits. I study from seven to nine in the morning. Then I take a bath and go to school at 9:30 a.m. I return home at 4 p.m. In the evening, I go out for playing. After that, I study again from 7 to 8. I enjoy watching TV serials and go to sleep at 10:00 p.m.

Sir,

With due respect, I beg to say that my cousin brother has been admitted to a hospital in Ajmer. Therefore, I request you to kindly grant me leave for three days from 19 July to 21 July as I have to go there to meet my brother

I shall be very thankful to you.

Your obedient student,

5. A. My Favourite Leader

My favourite leader is Mahatma Gandhi. He is called the Father of the Nation. He worked very hard to make India free from British rule. He believed in truth and non-violence. He lived a simple life and always helped poor people. He inspired millions of people to fight for freedom peacefully. He taught us to be honest, kind and disciplined. I admire him very much and try to follow his teachings in my life.

B. My School

My school is very big and beautiful. It has large classrooms and a clean playground. There is a library, a computer room, and a science lab. Our teachers are kind and helpful. They teach us good habits and encourage us to work hard. We study different subjects, take part in games, and celebrate festivals in school. I enjoy learning and playing in my school. I love my school very much.

C. Diwali

Diwali is my favourite festival. It is the festival of lights and is celebrated in October or November every year. People clean and decorate their houses with lamps, candles, and rangoli. We wear new clothes and exchange gifts with friends and relatives. On this day, we worship Goddess Lakshmi for wealth and prosperity. People burst crackers and share sweets. Diwali brings happiness and joy to everyone. I enjoy celebrating Diwali with my family.

D. A Visit to a Zoo

Last year I went to Jaipur with my father. He took me to the zoo. We bought tickets and entered the zoo. There were many birds like parrots, ducks, and cranes. We saw lions, tigers, elephants, camels, and horses. There were also stags, deer, crocodiles, tortoises, and fish. The animals were kept in clean cages, and the zoo was very beautiful. I enjoyed watching the animals and birds. The visit to the zoo was very interesting and memorable.
